The procedures taken by the Committee for the Implementation of Security Council Resolutions under Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter to submit routine and exceptional requests to the 1267 Sanctions Committee

- 1- The listed individual(s) or entities subject to measures imposed by the Security Council should submit a handwritten request detailing the circumstances and details of the request.
- 2- The listed individual(s) or entities subject to measures imposed by the Security Council should submit and provide all the documents supporting the request.
- 3- If the listed individual(s) or entities subject to measures imposed by the Security Council cannot provide the needed documents, the Committee shall formally request them from the relevant State Authorities.
- 4- To ensure full transparency, a recent Bank Statement must be attached to the request of the listed individual(s) or entities.
- 5- After fulfilling all the requirements and formulating the request in the correct legal form; the Committee shall hold a meeting with experts in the 1267 Sanctions Committee to present the draft application and all its supporting documents, and to answer all inquiries to ensure the completion of all technical and legal aspects of the submitted applications.
- 6- The final step is to formally submit the application to the 1267 Sanctions Committee after completing all technical and legal aspects and taking into account the comments of the experts, according to the procedures followed by the 1267 Sanctions Committee.
- 7- In case the request was approved, and the approval was sent by 1267 Sanctions Committee, the Committee shall notify the individual(s) or the entities that submitted the request of the decision by calling them or sending an email. The committee shall also notify concerned State Authorities about 1267 Sanctions Committee's decision and approval of the listed individual(s) or entities request so they could proceed to release or unfreeze the frozen assets and funds.
